

Planned Giving

For generations, Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church has been blessed by the many gifts of members and friends that support our work both today and tomorrow. Since our founding in 1873, BMPC has been a strong and vibrant community of faith serving others through mission and outreach at home and abroad. Our beautiful church home provides a refuge for those in need through preaching, music and education.

Legacy gifts support the longevity of our church and ensure its permanence in our lives as well as in the lives of those who follow us.

Through a variety of planned giving methods, BMPC members and friends can direct a portion of their estate to support our Church, its major capital projects and future operating needs. Gifts will be recognized upon designation in estate plans and in accordance with a donor's wishes.

Please consider Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church and its legacy in your estate plans.

Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal; but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Legacy Gifts: A Summary

Beneficiary:

Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church
Foundation

Planned Gifts:

The BMPC Foundation accepts all planned gifts with gratitude.

Undesignated gifts of cash or other liquid assets provide BMPC with the most long-term flexibility, and will be directed toward the Foundation's endowment for major capital projects and to preserve the cherished legacy of our Church.

In addition to undesignated gifts, our priorities include gifts that will help:

- Maintain our Bryn Mawr campus
- Support our clergy and preaching
- Enhance our mission, outreach and fine arts programs

Acknowledgment of Gifts:

Upon notification to the BMPC Foundation, planned gifts will be acknowledged by letter. The gift amount will never be disclosed, and gifts may be given anonymously.

Ways to Give:

The BMPC Foundation receives gifts through:

- a bequest in a will
- a beneficiary of a personal trust, an individual retirement account, or life insurance policy
- other tax-driven vehicles.

Please contact BMPC at 610-525-2821 and ask for Sarah Miciek.
