THE INSTALLATION OF THE REV. DR. R. CHARLES GRANT

Today the 10:00 am worship service is structured around the installation of R. Charles Grant as our Associate Pastor for Senior Adults and Pastoral Care. You may recall our election of Dr. Grant back in April. In the service of installation, a representative group of elders and ministers from Philadelphia Presbytery called a commission formally establishes the covenant between pastor and congregation. In questions posed to him from our Presbyterian Church Book of Order, Dr. Grant re-affirms his ordination vows and confirms his willingness to faithfully serve our congregation. In questions posed to the congregation, we affirm our willingness to support him in his ministry with BMPC.

Members of the Philadelphia Presbytery Installation Commission include the Moderator of the Presbytery, elder Catherine Adams, elder Anita Iyengar from the Associate Pastor Nominating Committee, and other elders from neighboring congregations. The ministers on the commission include former BMPC pastoral resident Adan Mairena, new Middleton Center Director Joyce Krajian, and associate pastor emeritus George Hollingshead, who offers a charge to the congregation. Two Vanderbilt Divinity School classmates of Dr. Grant complement the commission: Cynthia Jarvis, pastor of the Chestnut Hill Church is preaching today, and Dr. Steve Gordy, former professor of religion at Moravian College, offers a charge to the newly installed pastor. A reception follows the service on the front lawn.
