“Celebrate the Gifts of Women”

Join us for worship on Sunday, March 21st at both the 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. worship services as Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church observes “Celebrate the Gifts of Women.” The 2010 theme for the Presbyterian Church (USA) is “Women Keeping the Message Alive.” The celebrate the gifts of women is to celebrate the gift of the message God shares with them and through them. Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church traces its roots back to 1880. In that year the ladies of the young church formed “The Happy Thought Circle.” Mrs. Josiah Pearce was the first chairlady. The Circle was the forerunner of “The Women’s Association, know today as “Presbyterian Women.”

As we worship together in this special service we will also be recognizing and honoring past BMPC Moderators of Presbyterian Wmen which began in the early 1940. Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church has one of the few Presbyterian Women programs that are a growing, active and vibrant organization. Rev. Susan Rice will preach and women of all ages will be taking part in both services. So let us celebrate together as we lead all of God’s people in worship.
