

World Day of Prayer at Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church

World Day of Prayer (WDP) is a worldwide ecumenical movement of people of many faith traditions who come together to observe a common day of prayer each year on the first Friday in March. Each year a different country serves as the writer of the WDP worship service. This year's program was written by the WDP Committee of Cameroon.

This year World Day of Prayer is on Friday, March 5, 2010. All communities of faith are invited to join together as we fulfill the call of Psalm 150: "Let Everything That Has Breath Praise God." Fellowship and refreshments will begin at 10:00 a.m. and the service will follow at 11:00 a.m. in Congregational Hall. Our focus will be the struggles of the women and children in Cameroon, West Africa and our prayers will call for their justice and peace.

Come journey with us to Cameroon and enter a world vibrant with song and praise. We will pick up our instruments and make music. Together we will dance in the procession while singing praises to God. Together we will fulfill the call of Psalm 150: "Let Everything That Has Breath Praise God."

