

Twenty-second Sunday after Pentecost

Sunday, October 25, 2026

10:00 a.m., Sanctuary

We're excited to celebrate Commitment Sunday together! Today, we come forward as one church family to offer our commitments to BMPC's ministry and future. Whether you are making a financial pledge, committing your prayers, offering your time and talents, or making a first-time commitment, every commitment matters.

During the hymn following the sermon, we will come forward by section to place our commitment cards in the baskets on the table in front of the Chancel.

- We'll begin with the nave of the church. Please bring your commitment card and come forward using the center aisle. The usher team will provide guidance and assistance.
- Place your card in the baskets on the table in front of the Chancel, then return to your seat using the side aisles.
- If you misplaced or did not bring your commitment card, blank cards are available in the pew racks. If you already mailed your commitment card to the church office or completed your commitment online, please feel free to jot your name on a blank card in the pew racks and come forward to participate.
- After the nave, we will invite those seated in the transepts and balconies to come forward.
- Please wait for the ushers to indicate when your section should rise.
- If you would prefer to place your commitment card in the offering plate during the morning collection, please feel free to do so.

Thank you for being part of this special moment as we give to the glory of God and commit ourselves to the life and future of BMPC.

Gathering of God's People

Please note that online worshippers join the livestream at 9:50 a.m.

We invite you to prepare for worship in quiet reflection.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

Melanie Hardison

FIRST LESSON 1 Chronicles 29:6-9

(Old Testament pg. 386 in pew Bible)

Then the leaders of ancestral houses made their freewill offerings, as did also the leaders of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of the thousands and of the hundreds, and the officers over the king's work. They gave for the service of the house of God five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron. Whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the Lord, into the care of Jehiel the Gershonite. Then the people rejoiced because these had given willingly, for with single mind they had offered freely to the Lord; King David also rejoiced greatly.

ANTHEM I Was Glad

Charles H. H. Parry

Kara Goodrich, soprano, Emily Drummond, alto, Brett Hunter, tenor, Nick Provenziale, bass

I was glad when they said unto me, We will go into the house of the Lord. Our feet shall stand in thy gates, O Jerusalem. Jerusalem is builded as a city that is at unity in itself. O pray for the peace of Jerusalem, they shall prosper that love thee. Peace be within thy walls, and plenteousness within thy palaces.

SECOND LESSON Mark 12:41-44

John Willingham

(New Testament pg. 50 in pew Bible)

He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them,

“Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.”

One The Word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

SERMON The Gift of Our Treasures

John Willingham

Response to the Word

Please stand, if able.

During the singing of the hymn, you may come forward and place your Commitment Card for 2027 in the basket near the chancel. Ushers will invite each section to come forward in turn.

HYMN 712 As Those of Old Their Firstfruits Brought

FOREST GREEN

1 As those of old their first-fruits brought of vine-yard, flock, and field
2 A world in need now sum-mons us to la-bor, love, and give,
3 In grat-i-tude and hum-ble trust we bring our best to-day, to God, the giv - er of all good, the source of boun-teous yield,

to make our life an of - fer - ing that all may tru - ly live.
to serve your cause and share your love with all a - long life's way.

so we to - day our first-fruits bring, the wealth of this good land:
The church of Christ is call - ing us to make the dream come true:
O God who gave your-self to us in Je - sus Christ your Son, of farm and mar - ket, shop and home, of mind and heart and hand.

a world re-deemed by Christ-like love, all life in Christ made new.
help us to give our - selves each day un - til life's work is done.

LITANY OF COMMITMENT

Rebecca Kirkpatrick

- One All that we have is a gift from you, O God.
- All In response, we dedicate these faithful intentions for 2027.
- One Use them and us for your purposes, strengthening our congregation's life and witness to the Gospel
- All that all may be done to your glory!

All Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

INVITATION TO DISCIPLESHIP

Please fill in the Friendship Pad at the end of your pew; pass it down your row and back again.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM Purpose

Martin Shaw

God is working His purpose out as year succeeds to year, nearer and nearer draws the time, the time that shall surely be when the earth shall be filled with the glory of God as the waters cover the sea. From farthest east to farthest west, where e'er man's foot hath trod, by the mouth of many messengers goes forth the voice of God. "Give ear to me, ye continents, ye isles, give ear to me." March we forth in the strength of God with the banner of Christ unfurled. That the light of the glorious gospel of truth may shine throughout the world. Fight we the fight with sorrow and sin to set their captives free. All we can do is nothing worth unless God bless the deed. Vainly we hope for the harvest tide till God gives life to the seed; yet nearer and nearer with the glory of God!

Please stand, if able.

DOXOLOGY

OLD HUNDREDTH

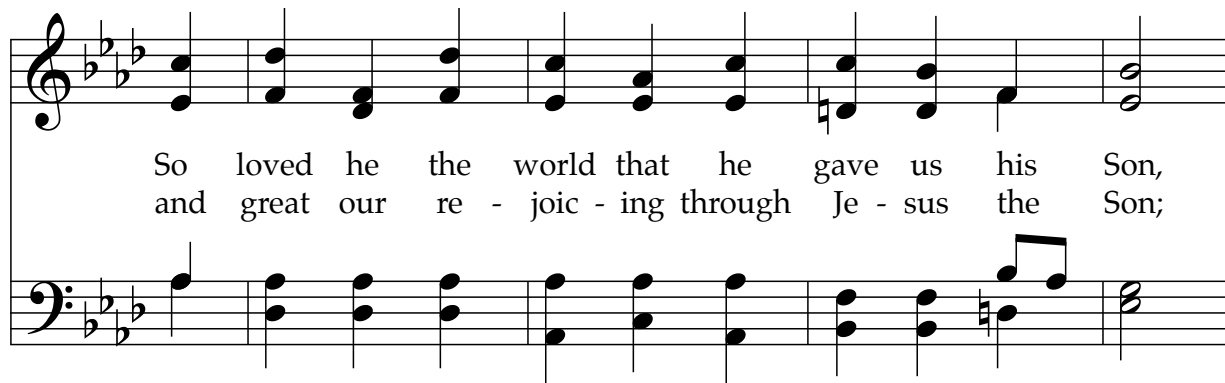

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow, praise God, all creatures here be-low; praise

God a-bove, ye heaven-ly host, praise Fa-ther, Son, and Ho-ly Ghost. A-men.

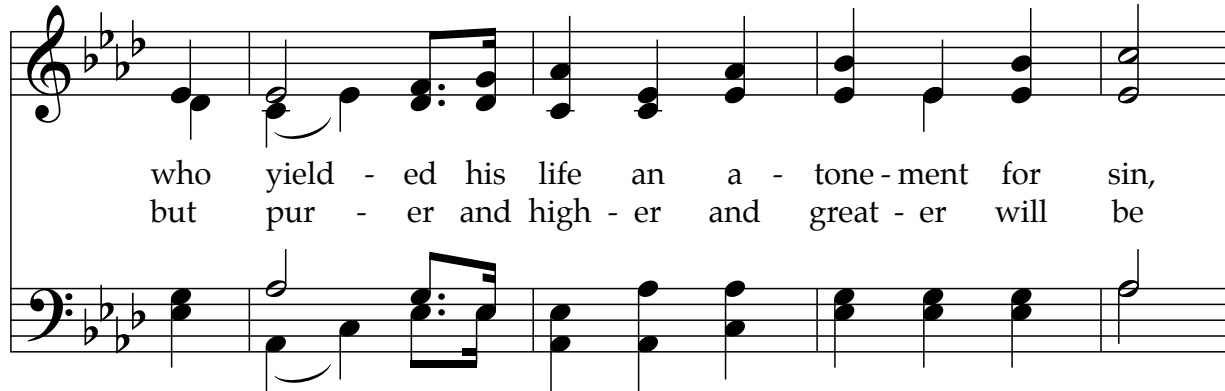

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

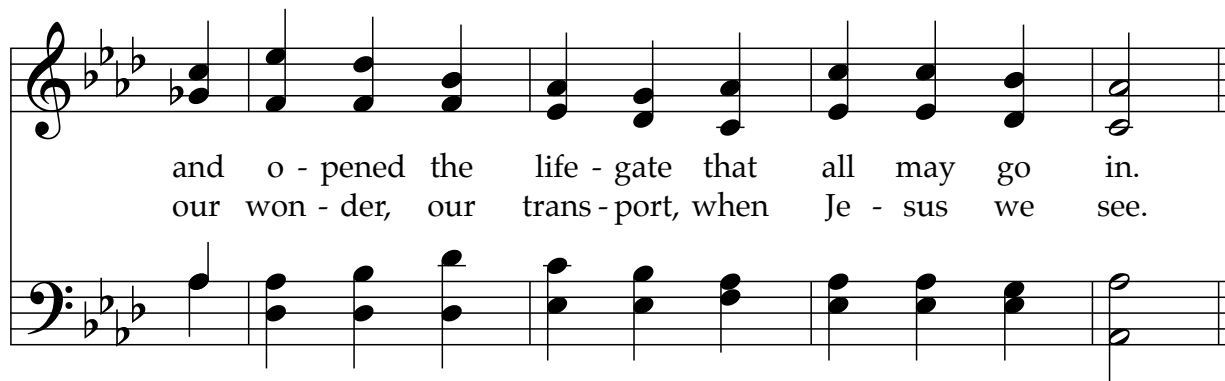

1 To God be the glo - ry; great things he has done!
2 Great things he has taught us; great things he has done,

So loved he the world that he gave us his Son,
and great our re - joic - ing through Je - sus the Son;

who yield - ed his life an a - tone - ment for sin, but pur - er and high - er and great - er will be

and o - pened the life - gate that all may go in.
our won - der, our trans - port, when Je - sus we see.

Refrain

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord; let the earth hear his voice!

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord; let the people rejoice!

O come to the Father through Jesus the Son,

and give him the glory: great things he has done!

TODAY'S MUSIC

Today we come to Commitment Sunday, the final of the three Sundays during which we've been focusing on the gifts we give back to the Church. Today's two anthems, I was Glad by Charles H. H. Parry and Purpose by Martin Shaw, both paint an optimistic picture of ideal worlds in which unity, peace, and God's justice reign supreme. The more famous of the two, I was Glad, is taken from Psalm 122 and is among Parry's most famous and oft-performed works. It is famously performed at the coronations of British monarchs in Westminster Abbey. To contrast with Parry's regal style, Purpose originated as a hymn tune written by Martin Shaw in a humbler, modal, folk-like style. In this arrangement by Dede Duson, it is treated in unison, canon, and 4-part textures. These two anthems invite us to ponder the Church's work to strive towards unity, peace, and justice, and our offerings of time, talent, and treasure are all contributions toward the better world that we as the Church are striving towards.

WELCOME TO BRYN MAWR PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Welcome to Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church during this season after Pentecost, when we are reminded that the Holy Spirit continues to guide, sustain, and renew the church. In these weeks, we gather to worship, reflect, and grow together in faith, trusting that God is at work in every season of our lives.

Whether you are a longtime member, returning after time away, or visiting with us for the first time, we are glad you are here. Through worship, fellowship, and service, we seek to follow Christ with faithfulness and joy. May our time together today deepen your sense of God's presence and strengthen our shared calling as Christ's disciples in the world.

John M. Willingham
Interim Senior Pastor

NEW HERE?

We are pleased that you are joining us as we worship God this morning. We invite you to introduce yourself to one of our pastors following the worship service. All of our programs, ministries, and opportunities for mission are open to everyone. Learn more at bmpc.org

T-COIL HEARING LOOP AVAILABLE

BMPC's Sanctuary and Congregational Hall are equipped with a T-Coil hearing loop system to enhance sound clarity for those with hearing aids or cochlear implants with a telecoil ("T" setting). Portable receiver units are also available in the Sanctuary upon request. We hope this technology enriches your worship experience!

CHILDCARE

Childcare is available on Sundays from 7:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. for children ages six months and older. If childcare would make it possible for you to attend a class or event outside of Sunday morning, please contact the Rev. Rachel Pedersen, RachelPedersen@bmpc.org or Childcare Coordinator Erika Henry, childcare@bmpc.org

LIVESTREAMED CHURCH SERVICES

Our Sunday 10:00 a.m. service is livestreamed and can be viewed at www.bmpc.org/live or on our YouTube channel. A recording of the service will also be available on our Past Services website page and Vimeo channel starting Monday. If you are attending in person and prefer not to be on camera, please speak with an usher who will seat you in an area off camera.

Announcements

TODAY

Digging Deeper. Sun., Oct. 25, Nov. 1, 8, 8:45 a.m., Gloucester Room. The Rev. Melanie Hardison leads a discussion of Ruth Haley Barton's Sacred Rhythms: Arranging Our Lives for Spiritual Transformation, where she asserts that "the choice to establish your own sacred rhythm is the most important choice you can make with your life." Come learn about the seven key spiritual disciplines outlined in this book and explore practical ideas for weaving them into everyday life. Participants will be encouraged to experiment with various spiritual practices to see what fits in their particular lives as a way of deepening the journey of faith. Visit bit.ly/BMPCBookpickup to purchase a copy of the book.

CD Launch: Inspired. Sun., Oct. 25, 11:15 a.m., Sanctuary. Join James Kealey and the Rev. Rebecca Kirkpatrick for a celebration of the longstanding partnership between Music & Fine Arts and Mission at BMPC. Hear live selections from the new Inspired CD and discover how music continues to support mission around the world. CDs will be available for $20.

UPCOMING & ONGOING

BMPC parking lot at 7:00 p.m. and return at 8:30 p.m. To coordinate a carpool, contact AndyGreenhow@bmpc.org

Sensory Friendly Trick-or-Treating at Church. Fri., Oct. 30, 3:00 p.m., Ministry Center Offices. Families are invited to stop by the Ministries Center Offices any time between 3:00 and 4:30 p.m. Children may wear a costume (optional) and trick-or-treat through the office suite at their own pace. This will be a no pressure, calm environment, with no scary or animatronic decorations/props or soundtracks. All are welcome. Contact: MaryRichards@bmpc.org

Halloween Silent Film with Live Organ Accompaniment. Fri., Oct. 30, 8:00 p.m., Chapel. Celebrate Halloween Eve with the 1925 silent film classic The Phantom of the Opera, starring Lon Chaney, in the atmospheric setting of the BMPC Chapel. The film will feature live organ accompaniment by Daniel Carroll, BMPC Organ Scholar, who will improvise the entire score in real time, responding to the action on screen. Free admission — no tickets required.

All Saints' Sunday. Sun., Nov. 1, 10:00 a.m., Sanctuary. Next Sunday, we remember and give thanks for those who have gone before us in faith. Through scripture, prayer, communion, and music, this service offers space for reflection and healing as we honor those we love and entrust them to God's everlasting care. The Sanctuary Choir will present Requiem by Eleanor Daley, a powerful work of remembrance and hope that includes the beloved movement In Remembrance, featuring Mary Elizabeth Frye's poem Do Not Stand at My Grave and Weep. Whether you are carrying fresh grief, remembering someone dear, or simply seeking a quiet place for reflection, you are warmly invited to join us. All are welcome.

Perspectives: A Members' Show Gallery

Opening. Sun., Nov. 1, 11:15 a.m., Gallery.

Perspectives: A Members' Show is a celebration of the creative spirit within our own congregation. This curated exhibit brings together a diverse collection of artwork by BMPC members and friends of the Visual Arts program, varied in approach, expression, and experience. From painting and photography to mixed media and sculpture, this exhibit invites you to experience the richness of creativity that lives within BMPC. We invite you to join us on the opening day to explore the works and support the artists in our midst.

Presbyterians and Public Life with

Heath Carter. Sun., Nov. 1, 11:30 a.m.,

Congregational Hall. Historian Dr. Heath Carter of Princeton Theological Seminary returns to BMPC to explore the Presbyterian tradition's engagement with democracy, civic responsibility, and public witness. Through history and thoughtful reflection, he invites us to consider faithful Christian participation in public life.
