I am exalted in the earth.

All The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

 and ev - ery-where that we can be, thou, God, art pres-ent there.

CALL TO CONFESSION AND PRAYER OF CONFESSION

All You love us with open arms, O God. Forgive us when we do not put your love into practice; when we do not challenge the injustice around us; when we are not generous with the gifts we have to share; when we are slow to compassion and quick to judgment; when we contribute to the brokenness of the world instead of helping to make it whole. Forgive us, O God, for the ways we fall short. Free us to try again, and let your love lead the way.

A moment of silence for personal reflection and confession.

FIRST LESSON Joshua 4:19-24

(Old Testament pg. 196 in pew Bible)

The people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and they camped in Gilgal on the east border of Jericho. Those twelve stones that they had taken out of the Jordan, Joshua set up in Gilgal, saying to the Israelites, "When your children ask their parents in time to come, 'What do these stones mean?' then you shall let your children know, 'Israel crossed over the Jordan here on dry ground.' For the Lord your God dried up the waters of the Jordan for you until you crossed over, as the Lord your God did to the Red Sea, which he dried up for us until we crossed over, so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the hand of the Lord is mighty and so that you may fear the Lord your God forever."

ANTHEM Teach me, O Lord

Philip Stopford

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end. Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall keep it with my whole heart. Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein is my desire. Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness. O turn away mine eyes lest they behold vanity; and quicken me in thy way. O stablish thy word in thy servant, that I may fear thee. Amen.

SECOND LESSON Mark 15:42-16:1

John Willingham

(New Testament pg. 54 in pew Bible)

When evening had come, and since it was the day of Preparation, that is, the day before the Sabbath, Joseph of Arimathea, a respected member of the council who was also himself waiting expectantly for the kingdom of God, went boldly to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate wondered if he were already dead, and summoning the centurion he asked him whether he had been dead for some time. When he learned from the centurion that he was dead, he granted the body to Joseph. Then Joseph bought a linen cloth and, taking down the body, wrapped it in the linen cloth and laid it in a tomb that had been hewn out of rock. He then rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph saw where the body was laid. When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him.

One The Word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Response to the Word

Please stand, if able.

HYMN 846 Fight the Good Fight

DUKE STREET

1 Fight the good fight with all thy might.
 2 Run the straight race through God's good grace;
 3 Cast care a - side; lean on thy guide.
 4 Faint not nor fear: God's arms are near.

Christ is thy strength and Christ thy right.
 lift up thine eyes, and seek Christ's face.
 God's bound - less mer - cy will pro - vide.
 God chang - eth not, and thou art dear.

Lay hold on life, and it shall be

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Rebecca Kirkpatrick

All We trust in God the Holy Spirit, everywhere the giver and renewer of life. In a broken and fearful world, the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing, to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior, to unmask idolatries in Church and culture, to hear the voices of peoples long silenced, and to work with others for justice, freedom, and peace. In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit, we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks and to live holy and joyful lives, even as we watch for God’s new heaven and new earth, praying, “Come, Lord Jesus!” With believers in every time and place, we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

- from A Brief Statement of Faith

PASTORAL PRAYER AND THE LORD’S PRAYER

All Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM Anthem of Unity

John Ness Beck

There is one body and one spirit, One Lord, one Faith, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. Till we all come in the unity of the faith; that we henceforth be no more children, but speaking truth in love may grow up into Him from whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted maketh increase of itself in love. All creatures of our God and King, lift up your voice and let us sing Alleluia! Thou burning sun with golden beam, Thou silver moon with softer gleam! O praise Him! Alleluia! Let all things their Creator bless and worship Him in humbleness, O praise Him! Alleluia! Praise, praise the Father, praise the Son, and praise the Spirit, Three in One! O praise Him, Alleluia! Amen.

Please stand, if able.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Today's prayer of confession comes from Call to Worship: Liturgy, Music, Preaching and the Arts.

TODAY'S MUSIC

Today brings about the beginning of the 2026-2027 program year, and alongside the joy and celebration that Rally Day brings, we also remember the events of 9/11, as we honor and remember the 25th anniversary of that most horrific attack. This morning's anthems reflect this tension in the quietly cheerful setting of "Teach Me, O Lord" by the popular British composer Philip Stopford. Taking its text from Psalm 119, the prayerful piece asks us to walk humbly alongside God. John Ness Beck, a fixture in American 20th-century choral music, was prolific. Among the many anthems he wrote was "Anthem of Unity," an uplifting piece to celebrate the new church year, reminding us of our common purpose as Christians. The work ends with the singing of "All Creatures of Our God and King."
