CALL TO CONFESSION AND PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Teacher, you call us to go, following the plan that you have set out for us. You promise us blessings and purpose, but we do not trust your words. We cling to what we already know, we trust in what we can see and touch, we make excuses for our failure to trust in you. Call to us again, that we may be born again through your Spirit. Help us to believe and give us the abundant life that comes from following your will.

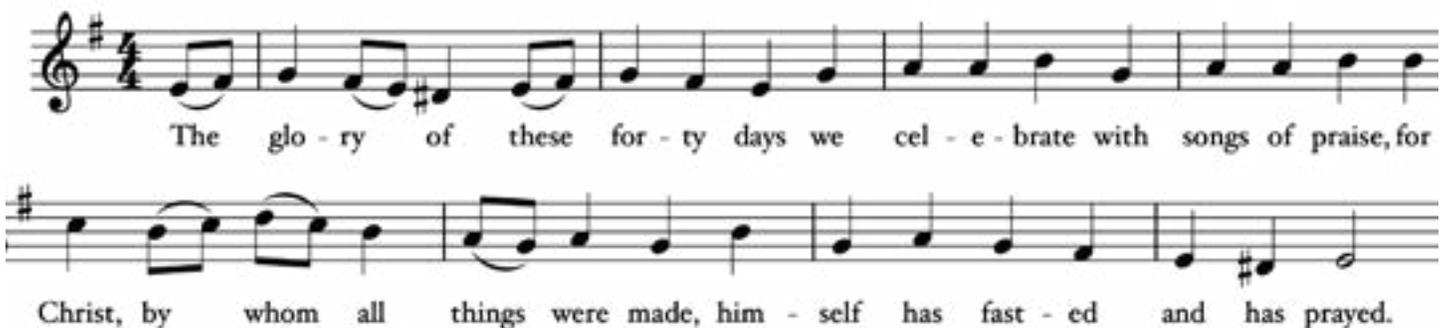

A moment of silence for personal reflection and confession.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

Melanie Hardison

FIRST LESSON John 11:1-6

(pg. 104 in pew Bible)

Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. Mary was the one who anointed the Lord with perfume and wiped his feet with her hair; her brother Lazarus was ill. So the sisters sent a message to Jesus, "Lord, he whom you love is ill." But when Jesus heard it, he said, "This illness does not lead to death; rather, it is for God's glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Accordingly, though Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus, after having heard that Lazarus was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was.

ANTHEM We Shall Walk Through the Valley

Undine Smith Moore

Lord, we shall walk in peace. We shall walk through the valley in peace. If Jesus, himself shall be our leader, we shall walk through the valley in peace. There will be no trials there, if Jesus, himself shall be our leader, we shall walk through the valley in peace.

SECOND LESSON John 11:7-16

John Willingham

(pg. 104 in pew Bible)

Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again." The disciples said to him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just now trying to stone you, and are you going there again?" Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours of daylight? Those who walk during the day do not stumble because they see the light of this world. But those who walk at night stumble because the light is not in them." After saying this, he told them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going there to awaken him." The disciples said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will be all right." Jesus, however, had been speaking about his death, but they thought that he was referring merely to sleep. Then Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. For your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him." Thomas, who was called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with him."

One The Word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

The Prayer of Confession is from Call to Worship: Liturgy, Music, Preaching & the Arts, 59.1

TODAY'S MUSIC

With the passing of Ash Wednesday, we have marked the beginning of the penitential season of Lent. For some, Lent may present itself as a time of self reflection, or journeying into the unknown, or beginning spiritual practices. I've no doubt that Lent can be a time of disturbance, and for others, a sense of calm. In the weeks ahead, I believe you'll encounter many of these feelings with the music offered. Today, on this first Sunday in Lent, the Sanctuary Choir sings a lovely setting of the Spiritual, "We Shall Walk Through the Valley in Peace", by the composer Undine Smith Moore, the "Dean of Black Women Composers," paired with a haunting work by Percy Whitlock; "Be Still, My Soul", reminding us that even on this unknown journey of Lent, and as we delve into the wilderness, God is forever by our side.

WELCOME TO BRYN MAWR PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

As we journey through Lent—a season of reflection and renewal—we are grateful for your presence in worship today. Whether you are visiting for the first time or have long been part of this community, you are welcome here, just as you are. This Lent, we focus on Jesus’ encounter with Lazarus in John’s Gospel, a story that speaks to illness and friendship, faith and grief, loss and new life. Through prayer, music, and scripture, we hope this season deepens your faith and creates space for spiritual growth. Inside this bulletin, you’ll find ways to engage in worship, fellowship, and service as we prepare our hearts for the hope of Easter.
