SUNDAY MORNING DISCUSSION GROUP

8:45 a.m. Conference Room, Ministries Center

Every week, through May 19

Join us in reading and discussing the Dalai Lama and Bishop Desmond Tutu's recent collaboration The Book of Joy. In these trying times, reading the text and doing the practices will help us become more focused and peaceful. Books are $15 and may be purchased in class. The Rev. Dr. Paul MacMurray facilitates this class.

DIGGING DEEPER BIBLE STUDY

8:45 a.m. Room 205, Education Building

Sundays, February 24 through April 14

This Sunday morning Bible Study offers a space for honest questions and reflections on matters of faith, while also helping to build community among long time and new members of our congregation. This spring the group will read and discuss Dean Chapman's book How to Worship as a Presbyterian. Building upon the idea of liturgy as the "work of the people," Chapman provides a "job description" for the Sunday pew sitter, describing in clear, accessible language what each aspect of worship is, why we do it, and how to do it well. The Rev. Franklyn Pottorff facilitates this class. BarbhHeaton@gmail.com

FILLING THE WELL

8:45 a.m. Children's Library, Education Building

Every week, through May 19

This weekly gathering of women provides an opportunity to build community and be in conversation about life, faith and current events. This winter the class will be drawing upon resources from the NPR program On Being, listening to and reflecting on a curated series of poetry taken from interviews and conversations from the show. Women of all ages and stages in life are encouraged to attend. The Rev. Rebecca Kirkpatrick facilitates this class. peggyhermann@hotmail.com

Sunday Mornings 11:15 a.m.

SUNDAYS, JANUARY 6 - 20, 11:15 a.m., Witherspoon Parlor CELTIC SPIRITUALITY WITH PATRICIA DANZON

Celtic Spirituality originated in the early Christianity of the Celtic lands. The emphasis is on the goodness of creation, recognizing the immanent presence of God in the world; living in community, with hospitality to the stranger; expression of faith through art and music; and the practice of pilgrimage, both as an outward and an inner journey. Our basic text is Listening to the Heartbeat of God: A Celtic Spirituality by J. Philip Newell. The course provides background for the Discovering Scotland tour in spring 2019 and is open to anyone interested in learning more about the inspiring Celtic tradition.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 27. 11:15 a.m. Witherspoon Parlor RACISM AND RESPONSE IN OUR LOCAL COMMUNITY

We welcome Anita Friday, local educator, activist and founder of Open Hearts: A Path to Racial Healing to help our congregation begin a meaningful conversation on how we can better engage the issue of racism in our local context. This class is sponsored by the BMPC Anti-Racism Taskforce.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 11:15 a.m. Witherspoon Parlor ICYIZERA MEANS HOPE: TRAUMA, HEALING, & COMPASSIONATE LISTENING IN RWANDA

The BMPC Peacemaking Committee welcomes Bill Jacobson to share about his remarkable reconciliation work in Africa, which he describes this way: "Sitting in with former enemies sharing a meal, after having lived through an unimaginable horror like the Genocide, is one of the greatest honors of my life."

Sunday, February 10, 11:15 a.m. Witherspoon Parlor

PENN SLAVERY PROJECT

UPenn History Professor Kathleen Brown and Public History Fellow

VanJessica Gladney (Class of 2018) will discuss the impetus behind the creation of the Penn and Slavery student research project in Fall 2017 and some of its findings. UPenn, while not itself a slaveholding institution, was complicit in slavery in a number of historically significant ways, including its credentialing of generations of doctors who returned to the slaveholding South to "practice" plantation medicine on the bodies of enslaved people, exhausted and injured from coerced plantation labor.

After Ten Years: Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Our Times

We welcome Dr. Victoria Barnett to lead us in a conversation on her recently published companion essay to Dietrich Bonhoeffer's After Ten Years. Dr. Barnett is director of the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum's Programs on Ethics, Religion, and the Holocaust, as well as one of the general editors of the Dietrich Bonhoeffer Works, the English translation of his complete works published in 2014. Copies of After Ten Years are available in the Book Center for $5.00

Sunday, March 17, 11:15 a.m. Witherspoon Parlor

THE THEOLOGICAL LEGACY OF BONHOEFFER

While we especially remember Bonhoeffer for his legacy in resisting Hitler and his regime, he also left behind a remarkable theological legacy that shapes our understanding of grace and Christian discipleship. Come hear more about the theology of Bonhoeffer with Dr. Katie Day, Professor of Church and Society at United Lutheran Seminary.

Sunday March 24, 11:15 a.m. Witherspoon Parlor

BONHOEFFER: AN ECUMENICAL YOUTH PASTOR

Bonhoeffer's extensive service as a youth pastor and ability to form ecumenical partnerships were central to his identity and critical to his influence on the church of his day. Though rarely emphasized, a parallel commitment to youth ministry and ecumenism are two of the most consistent themes that emerge from the German theologian's life story. Rev. David B. Smith will explore these formative elements of Bonhoeffer's witness and consider their relevance for the church today.

THOMAS LLOYD'S BONHOEFFER

Sun., March 17, 4:00 p.m.
Sanctuary

Tickets: $20 for adults; $5 for students with ID. The Bryn Mawr Chamber Singers present a groundbreaking theater piece featuring the writings of Dietrich Bonhoeffer.

PASTORS' BOOK GROUP

Educated*, by Tara Westover

Wednesday., May 1, 6:30 p.m.

Witherspoon Parlor

Join the Rev. Rachel Pedersen, Associate Pastor for Children and Family Ministries, as she leads us in a discussion of the recent bestselling memoir, Educated.

Born to survivalists in the mountains of Idaho, Tara Westover was seventeen the first time she set foot in a classroom. Her family was so isolated from mainstream society that there was no one to ensure the children received an education, and no one to intervene when one of Tara's older brothers became violent. When another brother got himself into college, Tara decided to try a new kind of life. Her quest for knowledge transformed her, taking her over oceans and across continents, to Harvard and to Cambridge University. Only then would she wonder if she'd traveled too far, if there was still a way home.

Books are $17 and available for purchase from the BMPC Book Center.

CONFIRMATION FOR ADULTS

Thursdays, January 24, February 28, March 28, April 25, May 23, 7:00 p.m., Gloucester Room

Together we will wrestle with the questions that Presbyterians are asked to answer as followers of Christ anytime we commit ourselves to be active members of a church, just as our young people are asked to do in the Confirmation process.

We will share our own questions and struggles when it comes to matters of faith. Too often in adult education we spend a lot of time learning and studying together on matters of faith and scripture without taking that next step to ask, "How and why does this impact my own faith expression through worship, through service, or even through our relationships? This class is led by The Rev. Rebecca Kirkpatrick.

MEN'S STUDY GROUP

2nd and 4th Wednesdays of each month through May

10:00 a.m. Converse House Parlor

This fall the group will continue to read and discuss theologian Paul Tillich's classic Dynamics of Faith. One of the greatest books ever written on the subject, Dynamics of Faith is a primer in the philosophy of religion. Paul Tillich, a leading theologian of the twentieth century, explores the idea of faith in all its dimensions, while defining the concept in the process. Men of all ages are invited. This group is facilitated by the Rev. Dr. Drew Mann. Books available from AmyBauer@bmpc.org

COFFEE CUP BIBLE STUDY

Wednesdays through May

10:00 a.m. Gloucester Room

This fall the Coffee Cup Bible Study will begin a study of the Old Testament Book of Proverbs. This collection of wisdom and sayings provides both insights and challenges to how we understand life and faith in our modern context. This women's Bible study is sponsored by BMPC's Presbyterian Women and is led by The Rev. Rachel Pedersen. MaryRichards@bmpc.org
